NEWBERRY PARK RIBBON CUTTING

Newly Renovated Park Now Open

A perfect June 1st evening was the setting for the ribbon cutting celebration for the newly renovated Newberry Park. Many neighbors, friends and families were on hand to mark the occasion.

The brief ceremony began with Johnny

Blair, singer and recording artist, performing his original song Nothing Like Williamsport, which is fast becoming a tradition at all official City celebrations since the start of Mayor Campana's administration.

The Mayor welcomed the crowd and invited representatives of state and city government as well as leaders of Newberry community organizations to say a few words. On hand to offer congratulations were Tonya Anderson, Chief of Staff for Representative Rick Mirabito, John Grado, Williamsport's Community Development Director, Bill Kieser, President of Newberry Lions and the Newberry Community Partnership,

NEWBERRY GROWER'S MARKET OPENS

To Market! to Market to by a fresh peach, It's at 901 Diamond, So easy to reach!

The return of a Grower's Market to Diamond Street in Newberry makes us giddy as children on the last day of school. Every Thursday from 10 AM to 3 PM through late October as many as ten or more vendors will set up in the parking lot of the West End Christian Community Center (WECCC), at the corner of West 4th and Diamond Street.

There will be something for everyone; freshly harvested vegetables and fruit, baked goods, honey and organic body care products. Whether you have a tight or leisurely schedule you can shop and grab a quick Coney Island hot dog or enjoy delicious grilled BBQ chicken.

Diamond Square has long stood at the center of community life in Alannah Gabriel, Elm Street Manager, Marge Thompson, Director of the West End Christian Community Center, Rebecca Lundy, Co-Chair, Newberry Crime Commission, Mike Salvatori, President of the Sons of Italy Lodge 138 and former Mayor Phil Preziosi a life long Newberry resident. After the ribbon cutting, the crowd enjoyed refreshments furnished by neighbors and friends of the park; the kids received additional treats of lollipops and bottles of bubbles.

Beautiful trees, green grass, picnic tables, colorful playground equipment, attractive lighting and bocce courts replace the rough asphalt and high chain link fence of the old park. Now, more families are spending time in the park, observed a neighbor. We hope the new park will foster pleasant memories for today's youngsters to write about in their generation's version of Facebook. The park has generated so much interest it now has a Facebook page of its own, where previous generations reconnect and reminisce about their fun times in the old park. Go to www.Facebook.com and search Newberry Park.

The Park will be the setting for a “grown-ups event”, Wednesday, July 1st at 6:00 PM, when the Mayor will hold one of several Town Meetings.

All residents are welcome to come and voice their opinions and concerns to the Mayor and his department heads.

The community is pleased and proud of our new park and hope it will be a place of safe, joyful recreation for years to come.

ARCH STREET BRIDGE

New Bridge on the Way

While everyone's attention was focused on the construction of the Market Street bridge, I took a look at the historic gateway to Newberry – the Arch Street Bridge. (This, of course, before we learned that the bridge was slated for replacement).

Anyone who has wisely driven across the Arch Street Bridge to avoid the congestion on the Market Street and Maynard Street bridges knows that Newberry's oldest bridge can be uncomfortably narrow, and there's no denying that the bridge has been showing its age. That, unfortunately, is usually enough to start people thinking about a new bridge on Arch Street. After new bridges at Maynard and Market Street, wasn't it Arch Street's turn? Well, yes – and a new bridge is coming, replacing a crucial part of historic Newberry.

If you've walked across the Arch Street Bridge, you know that our own Newberry Bridge is more than a way across the river. It's also a place to get up close and personal with Newberry's river heritage, and an architectural treasure that has, admittedly, seen better days. So maybe it's time to remember the Arch Street Bridge in its former glory.

If you walk the Arch Street bridge from Newberry to Duboistown, you can immediately see traces of how the bridge used to be – the old light standards on the bridge are either missing or in unused disrepair. Try imagining how it was in the bridge's better days, when those classic columns of light led visitors from across the river into Newberry.

An early morning walk, with mist rising, ducks feeding, and fish splashing in the water will convince anyone that there's no better place in Williamsport to experience the Susquehanna River – on foot, at least – so before it's too late, why not take a walk on the bridge, just for old time's sake?

GROWER'S MARKET

Newberry, historically housing a farmers market and neighborhood watering trough.

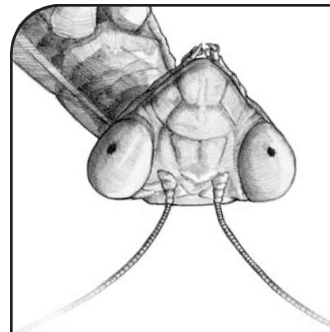

This current version of the Newberry market is the result of a casual conversation between Marge Thompson, WECCC Executive Director and Alannah Gabriel, Elm Street Manager for the Newberry Community Partnership. They discovered both were working on the same goal – to bring the convenience and benefits of fresh local food to Williamsport's west end.

Thompson said, "The market will promote healthy living by encouraging people to walk to the market and to eat fresh nutritious food. It will also promote community spirit by providing local residents with a place to congregate and socialize."

When Anne Nordell, Williamsport Growers Market President and several vendors visited the Newberry location, they liked the layout, the proximity to the expressway and traffic light at the intersection of W. 4th and Diamond Street. It's in walking distance for many residents and on a bus route. Plenty of free parking is available at St. Johns-Newberry United Methodist Church, a stone's throw from the market.

WEST END CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY CENTER NEWS

A Mid-Year Recap

You have come to know and appreciate the West End Christian Community Center (WECCC) at 901 Diamond Street for all the services it offers our community and for providing space for various groups to meet regularly.

Since the beginning of 2009 the center has been the scene of many other events we'd like to share with you.

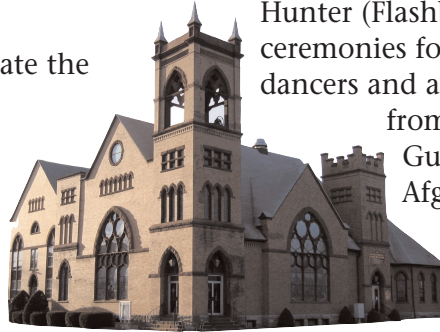

On April 4, John and Sylvia Confer celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary by renewing their vows at the WECCC. They were attended by their children, Scott, Barbara, John, and Diana; their grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Following the ceremony a reception was held in the fellowship hall for guests.

STEP hosted a "Poverty Simulation" training for their staff and guests on April 9th. This training was attended by approximately 60 to 65 individuals who learned what it felt like to be desperate and in need of help when dealing with everyday financial and emotional traumas. At the conclusion of the training, those attending said it taught them much about how to deal with those asking for assistance with an issue.

The Center was the site of a "Relay for Life" benefit on April 26th. Many vendors participated and donated their proceeds to the American Cancer Society.

The Center sanctuary, decorated beautifully with flowers and special lighting effects was the site of two weddings in May. Congratulations to the newlyweds.

May 31st was our 3rd Annual Patriotic Festival & Pig Roast. This event is our largest of the year and was well attended. Steve Hunter (Flashback Entertainment) was master of ceremonies for the program that featured singers, dancers and a martial arts demonstration. Veterans from WWII, Korean War, Vietnam Conflict, Gulf War and our current wars in Iraq and Afghanistan spoke of their experiences serving in our country's armed forces.

Center volunteers cooked and served barbecued pork sandwiches, hot dogs, baked beans, macaroni salad, dessert and beverages. Additional food and craft vendors were on site. Children were entertained with games and face painting. Other activities included a novelty table; Quiz Your Knowledge on the Wars. Winners took home terrific prizes donated by local businesses. This year additional tents and seating were provided so friends and family could enjoy the event in comfort. A festival first was the popular Newberry Proud tee shirt sold to help raise funds for the WECCC. It's not too late to get yours and they make great gifts to give to Newberry neighborhood fans.

If you were not able to attend this year, we hope you will make it a point to come next year.

The beginning of YMCA Summer Day Care for Children began its summer long program at the WECCC in June. Should you wish to have day care for your child during July and August – contact Caroline Hawk at the YMCA.

Thank you to everyone for your support of the WECCC. Our mission is to help those in our community in their time of need. By helping others, you are helping yourself.

Remember - Live simply - Love generously - Care deeply - Speak kindly - And leave the rest up to God. Call 570-323-6297 for info and center programs.

INSIDE OUR SCHOOLS...Reports from Newberry's Schools

Jackson Elementary School

School Year Wrap-Up

To bring the curtain down on the 2008-2009 school year, the Jackson kindergarten students entertained their parents and the entire Jackson School by presenting "The Barnyard Moosical" during the first week of June. Students, dressed like goats, cows, pigs and chickens, sang and danced their way into the hearts of their audience. It is truly amazing to watch our youngest learners grow throughout their first year of public education.

Hundreds of Jackson School students were honored during the Award Ceremony and Promotion Exercises on Friday, June 5th. As part of the ceremony, students were honored for excellence in the arts, academics, citizenship, physical education and reading. In addition, Nyric Gosley was named the Tyler Belton Good Citizenship Award recipient. This special award is given yearly in memory of Tyler Belton, a child who passed away while he was a student at Jackson. We are proud of Nyric and of all of our students. We look forward to the 2009-2010 school year at Jackson as we educate the future at a modern facility in the heart of historic Newberry.

Kindergarten and also students returning to LNS next year. All 52 students crossed the stage and received their certificate of completion, with applause from their family members.

On May 14th the students attended their annual student only carnival at the school. Prizes were won by all, and Marty Pants the clown, entertained the students with her balloon creations.

The year-end Hiawatha ride and picnic was held on May 19th. Family and siblings attended the sunny one hour ride and then enjoyed hot dogs and memories at Susquehanna State Park.

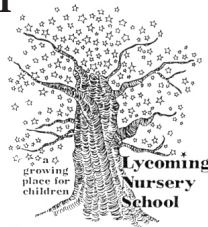

The LNS Fall open house is Thursday, August 27th from 6-7:30 PM. There are still some spots available, so please come and check out all the school has to offer. For more info, contact the registrar at 494-1001.

Lycoming Nursery School

Busy Month of May

It was a busy month of May as the students and teachers said goodbye to another school year at Lycoming Nursery School (LNS).

Rounding up the year consisted of "May Celebration", on May 13th, which is the graduation ceremony/presentation for the students moving on to Lycoming Nursery School students enjoy a year-end ride on the Hiawatha.

Ready to board the bus to hear Dr. Ben Carson speak at the Community Art Center are just some of the Roosevelt students to attended the event.

Roosevelt Middle School

Visit to Community Arts Center

Do what's right! Say what's right! Don't just dream; do! Dr. Ben Carson inspired the people of Williamsport in many ways. However, on May 20, 2009, when Dr. Benjamin Carson paid a visit to Williamsport, he was able to speak to students at a couple of schools. Unfortunately, he was not able to fit Roosevelt Middle School into his busy schedule, so Roosevelt did the next best thing: offered bus transportation to his evening presentation that took place at the Community Arts Center. Several Newberry residents along with three Roosevelt teachers and some family members made the short trip to hear Dr.

Carson's inspirational speech.

Among Roosevelt students who attended the presentation was sixth grader Carl Wright of Poplar Street, who noted that the most significant thing to him that Dr. Carson spoke of was our nation's emphasis on the importance of sports over academics.

Roosevelt sixth grader Carl Wright attended Dr. Ben Carson's speech.

Four other Roosevelt students, also residents of Newberry, commented on the motivation that Dr. Carson provided them. Keishana Philson was impressed by Dr. Carson's admonition to be kind to everyone, even if you disagree with him or her. Geanna Green intends to follow her dreams, as Dr. Carson encouraged. Diana Kelly has been inspired to attempt to achieve her goal, which is to be a brain surgeon. And Brittney Randolph was also staggered by the recognition given in this country to athletes who get large banners and trophies, yet academic standouts just get a pat on the head. These four young ladies intend to make a difference in their own achievements as well as in our community.

Saint John's School of The Arts "Ballroom Blast"

If you're between the ages of 12 and 18, there's still time to sign up for a fun new summer program, Ballroom Blast. Sponsored by the Saint John's School of the Arts, Ballroom Blast gives teens the opportunity to meet new people, make new friends, increase self-confidence, and get some exercise! No partner? You can come alone or with a group of friends. Students learn east coast swing, west coast, salsa, tango, hustle, and more. And the cost is only $25. Classes are held Thursdays through August 13 at the Saint John's-Newberry United Methodist Church. The dance studio is air conditioned! Instructors are John Stugin and Mimi Troisi. Call 327-5575 for more info or to sign up.

West Branch School Another Successful Year

West Branch School ended another great and successful school year. With a wealth of hands-on learning, lots of educational field trips, and academic challenges, students were sad to see another year come to a close. A Graduation Ceremony was held June 4th to recognize those graduating, moving through the program, or transferring to another school.

"We get very attached to all the students here, says Pamela Niemczyk, Office Manager. It's easy to welcome them but hard to watch them leave especially after they have been here a full eight years (K through 8th grade). Each child is a blessing with unique and diverse personalities. We are all thankful for the time we share and the imprints we leave in their minds."

Students don't have to wait until fall for some educational excitement. Although Summer Branches is already underway (the program began June 22nd and will run through July 24th); it is not too late to enroll. The roster of amazing programs planned for this year include Pottery, Music, Greek Mythology, Science, Theatre, and Outdoor Exploration. All children are welcome to join in the Summer Branches Program.

This year WBS will also see our first Executive Director, Jeff Klein, move on (the west coast calls) as it welcomes new Executive Director, Rhonda Taggart.

INSIDE OUR SCHOOLS...

West Branch students take on the challenge of cross-country skiing this past winter, just one of the many programs the school offered during the 2008-2009 school year.

Many other changes are taking place at the little red school house. Plans are on the way for a Capital Campaign for building renovations and updates. The campaign is tentatively scheduled to kick off in September. Donations are always welcome!

Additionally, the school will be participating in the AmeriCorps Program for the 2009-2010 school year. Two full time positions are available through the program - a certified teacher to act as a classroom assistant and an experienced individual to work on grant writing and development. Anyone who is interested can call or visit the school.

With such a wonderful program accompanied by excellent teachers, it's no wonder WBS has a waiting list for K through 2nd grade. Enrollment for 3rd to 8th grade is open, space limited. Keeping the class size small and learning fun is the key to igniting a lifetime of curiosity within each student. One thing is for sure; when it comes to West Branch School...children really do love to learn there. For more info call 570-323-5498 or visit www.westbranchschool.org.

IN CASE YOU'VE BEEN WONDERING...

The mural "A Look at our Corner of the City" which was hung on the West 4th Street Side of the former Dollar Bazaar has been removed for safe keeping until building renovations are complete. Mark O'Neill has promised it will be restored for all to see when the exterior work is done. Mark also reported that the interior work is progressing and the grand opening celebration will take place in October; a new store with a new name Mark's Sales and Leasing.

Another landmark that has been absent for months will return to its honored place this summer. Our bell in Monument Square had to be removed because one of the wood posts that support it was rotting. It will be good to have it back again.

NEWBERRY COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIP HAPPENINGS

Elm Street Survey

In order to help The Newberry Community Partnership understand your issues and concerns about the neighborhood and develop strategies to make Newberry a better place, Elm Street Manager Alannah

Gabriel and volunteers will conduct a block by block survey throughout the summer. The survey will target the Elm Street designated area of Newberry and will extend beyond the boundaries after the focus area survey is complete. The simple questionnaires will be hand delivered and picked up at your door. Your participation and co-operation is appreciated.

Litter Pick-Up and Waste Removal Grant

The NCP's Safe, Clean and Green team is staging a big Clean-Up Newberry Day, Saturday, October 3rd. Thanks to a grant from the City of Williamsport Bureau of Codes, neighborhood residents can rid their property of old tires, appliances, old playground equipment and other exterior trash. The collection site will be the parking lot of the WECCC. Some fees will apply. Specifics will be available September 1st via flyers, bulletins, local media or by contacting the Elm Street office 570-601-0298. Volunteers for our fall community-wide litter pick up that same day will meet in front of the center at 10 am for their assignment, gloves and vests. Our neighborhood needs YOU to do your part to make Newberry the cleanest neighborhood in the City.

Volunteers Wendy Decker, Vita Manno & Linda DeSeau clean debris from curb in front of the WECCC. Over 40 volunteer hours and over 350 lbs. of litter were picked up in April's event.

THE JOB PATH

Options for Finding Employment

Looking for a job is never easy or fun, but in our current tough economic times it can be even more frustrating. Here at the James V. Brown Library we've started a new program to address this situation.

The Job Path is a library project which connects people with the resources they need to search for the job they want. It provides presentations on the skills needed to find and get these jobs, and to keep them once they've been obtained. The Job Path website (<http://www.lycolibrary.org/jobpath.html>) has information on all aspects of becoming self-supporting. It has information on how to find jobs, how to start small businesses and information on evaluating and improving your job skills. The Job Path also has links to the top fifteen (by number of employees) local area employers and to other local employers.

The Job Path has computers available for job seekers to use to work on their resumes, research companies, evaluate their job skills and interests, along with other aspects of looking for work. In addition The Job Path has literature available about the requirements and outlook for specific jobs in Lycoming County, the central region of PA and in the Commonwealth as a whole.

In addition to the website, the computers and the literature, the library has numerous books, videos and online resources that can be used to aid in finding work. On any page in The Job Path website where you see the words "Search the Catalog" you will find guided searches through all the materials available in the Lycoming County Library System. These can be invaluable in enhancing a person's prospects for employment.

The Job Path also has regular Tuesday evening presentations on all aspects of searching for work. These programs are every Tuesday, from 6:30 PM to 7:30 PM in the Lowry Room on the third floor of the Kathryn Siegel Welch Wing at the James V. Brown Library. To see a list of the programs scheduled, just

The screenshot shows the Lycoming County Library System eBranch website. At the top, there are navigation links: "Quick Links >> Choose a page" and "Home". Below that are five colored buttons: "Get it NOW", "Ask it NOW", "Learn it NOW", "for Kids NOW", and "Look it up NOW". A blue bar contains "Questions Answered :: Find an Answer :: The Job Path :: Homework Help Live Tutors". The main content area is titled "The Job Path" and features four illustrated icons: "Find a Job" (a person at a computer), "Evaluate your Skills" (a person with a red apple), "Improve Your Skills" (a person at a computer), and "Start a Business" (a person with a boat). A sidebar on the left lists "Questions Answered", "Find an answer", "The Job Path", "Job Path Programs", and "Homework Help/ Live Tutors". At the bottom, there is a "June eBook of the Month" section for "The Career Clinic" with the subtitle "Eight Simple Rules for Finding Work You Love".

The Job Path is intended to act as a "portal" to information useful in gaining employment, no matter where the information comes from. That's why The Job Path affiliates with other groups and organizations in the area that are providing such information. Rather than duplicate their efforts, The Job Path promotes them and works with them. For more information about The Job Path, call the James V. Brown Library at 326-0536.

A Special Message from Center Manager Marge Scott

For nearly two decades it has been my pleasure to be a part of the Newberry Community. I was appointed to the position of Center Manager and Meals on Wheels Site Manager in 1992. I now feel it is time for me to retire and spend some time with my family. I still plan to indulge my passion for volunteering, only in a more limited way.

There are very few positions that can provide a person with as much joy as I have experienced over the past 17 years. I have laughed and cried with my clients over the years and I thank everyone who has been a part of my life. It has been a wonderful journey.

*Love to you all,
Marge Scott*

When asked to comment on Marge's retirement, Fred Shrimp, Director of STEP Office of Aging said, "In her role as manager, Marge oversaw the delivery of about 70 meals-on-wheels by volunteers each week-day and entertained about 30 for lunch and activities at the Lincoln Center. Her joy and compassion are going to be missed by the seniors that she has served and the staff at STEP, Inc. Happy trails to Marge!"

BE A GOOD NEIGHBOR

A Reminder from our City's Codes Department

Although summer is upon us and we'd like to slow down a bit and take it easy, we still need to keep our property clean and maintained. There is a property maintenance code which applies to all properties in the City of Williamsport. This includes developed property and vacant lots.

Proper maintenance of your property includes the removal of rubbish and debris. Garbage is to be kept in approved covered containers and removed from your property weekly.

The exterior condition of your home, garage, business or any other structure should be free of peeling paint and in good structural condition. Please mow your lawn regularly so that the grass does not exceed 10 inches in height.

The City of Williamsport receives many calls concerning vehicles stored on properties. The regulations do not allow any unlicensed and /or un-inspected vehicle to be stored on private property or in the street right-of-way. In addition, vehicles cannot be in a state of major disassembly or damaged.

We are asking that all City residents, businesses and property owners take pride in their property. The way your property looks does affect your neighbors and surrounding area.

Any questions or concerns, please call 327-7517.

LINCOLN SCHOOL PAINTINGS SALVAGED

NCP Looking for Painting's Histories

The Newberry Community Partnership (NCP) has acquired seven chalk paintings that were salvaged from the Lincoln School classrooms, thanks to the foresight of STEP, Inc. when they began renovation of the building. They were hung over the chalk boards in the class rooms. Does anyone remember these or know who painted them? If so, we'd love to hear from you. They will be on display at Inside Newberry Day this coming October 24th.

Paintings salvaged from Lincoln School. Newberry Community Partnership is seeking info on the history of these paintings, who painted them, etc. They will be on display at the Inside Newberry Day on October 24th.
