YWCA IS ON A MISSION

YWCA Cuisine & A Cause Competition set for April 7, 2019

The YWCA Northcentral PA is thrilled to announce its fourth biennial Cuisine & A Cause set for April 7 at 12 p.m. at Benjamin Ballroom, 340 Hughes St.

This year there is space for 18 eateries to compete in the categories of appetizer, salad, soup or chili, entrée, dessert and this year's one-time-only specialty category: gluten free. There is no cost for participating businesses, who will receive personalized promotional items for their business.

For the price of a ticket, guests will be able to sample more than 50 dishes and cast their vote for their favorites. Winners will be announced at the conclusion of the event and live entertainment will keep the crowd going.

Any restaurant, caterer, food truck or eatery interested in competing in this year's Cuisine & A Cause can visit www.ywcawilliamsport.org for a full list of details, or call Anna Thompson, YWCA Communications & Development Director, at (570) 322-4637, ext. 159. Serving items like plates and forks will be provided to the restaurants, but they will need to provide their own heating elements, extension cords and cooking equipment. Each will be provided with their own workspace during the event.

The restaurants registered are: Barrel 135, Erb's West Ed Family Market and Catering, Haywood's Bar and Grill Muncy, Herman and Luther's, The Hillside Catering, Long Island Pizza, Rose Valley Soup, Sauces and Sweets and Sammy's Restaurant.

Tickets are $50 each and can be purchased by calling (570) 322-4637 or visiting www.ywcawilliamsport.org. Cuisine & A Cause 2019 is sponsored by Woodlands Bank and M&T Bank.
