Improvements to Phil Park in Flux

Ever since the public park in Newberry was named for Mayor Phil Preziosi, he's been working to make the park more usable and accessible. His efforts have been met with praise and enthusiasm as well as criticism and obstruction. So far, the critics and obstructionists are having their way. Originally, as you may have read in this publication, there was a plan to install a stage that could be removed and stored when not in use. As the original plan met with some opposition from Newberry residents who live closest to the park, a compromise was put forth. And then another. Eventually, the city decided to install a concrete pad that could be used for a variety of purposes, and wouldn't change the aesthetic of the park. So when city workers showed up to get to work, Phil Preziosi tells me, they were accosted by the same nearby residents who want nothing at the park to change. What they said to the workers hasn't been revealed, but it was enough to get the city employees to abandon the work site and leave the project in limbo. While the improvements at Phil park are welcome by a majority of Newberry residents, it seems the minority is holding sway over the majority. The alarming part is, they seem to be doing it with the help of the City Council.

I have been told by two sources that a meeting was held at a Newberry residence about the planned improvements to Phil Park. It's alleged that Sunshine Laws were broken because a quorum of City Council members were there to discuss city business without the public being notified. No City Council members have confirmed that such a meeting has taken place. It is also alleged that a few of the residents who live by the park have used whatever influence they have to convince enough City Council members to support their obstruction of changes to Phil Park. It is this support from City Council that perhaps led to the capitulation of the city workers when confronted by a few residents when attempting to begin work on the park. In any case, the stage project is on hold. There is, however, another plan moving forward. Phil is working to add playground equipment to the park. Not just any playground equipment, but playground equipment that is accessible to physically challenged children. Phil says there are at least two group homes in the area that help these children, so he hopes that adding accessible fun will help make the park more useful to more Newberry residents.

Phil says he won't be here forever, and neither will the residents who are opposed to the changes. "I just want to leave something good behind for the future. Young people need community events to learn how to socialize and promote brotherhood." ~ Bob Woodley

Forty-one million people in the United States face hunger everyday. Out of these 41 million Americans, 16 million children struggle with hunger each year.

Eradicating hunger in America has been a long-term effort by many communities. Therefore, Diamond Street Christian Church has decided to join the fight to end hunger in our community. Every 1st and 3rd Sunday of the month from 2pm to 3pm, DSCC Food Pantry will be giving out food to individuals and families in need. The address is 822 Diamond Street.

There are no pre-qualifications. Everyone is welcome.

Timothy Montgomery Memorial Scholarship Fund Established at WASD Education Foundation

The Tim Montgomery Memorial Scholarship Fund was established by his family to memorialize the health and physical education teacher who taught at WAHS and coached the Millionaire football team for more than 25 years.

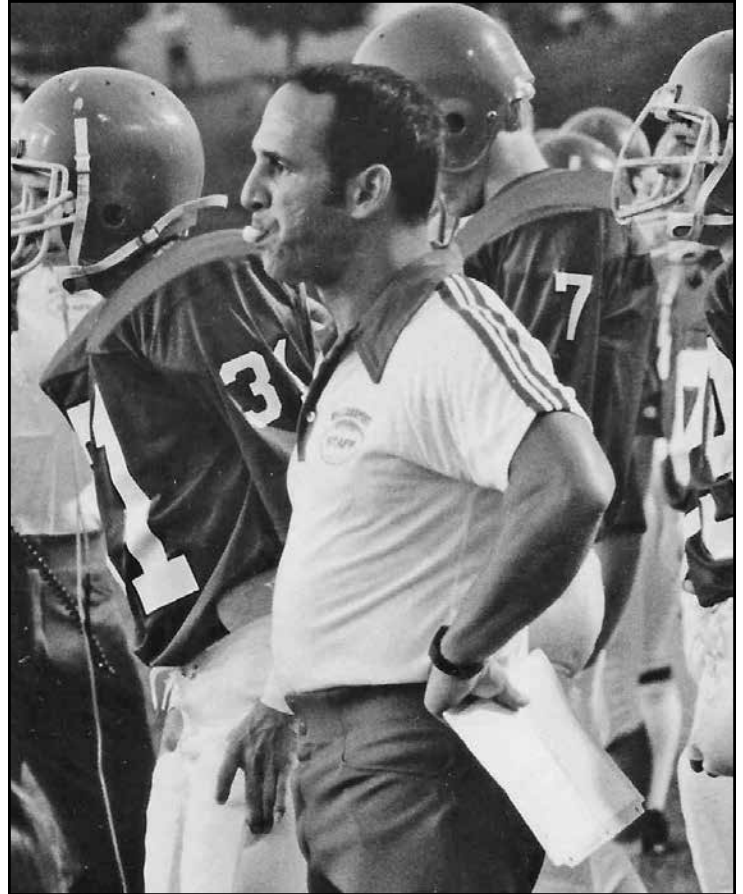

He passed away at the age of 74 on August 15 after a long battle with cancer.

Montgomery came to WAHS in 1977 from Shamokin. It was a move that laid the foundation for a storied career and one that earned him a spot in the Pennsylvania Scholastic Football Coaches Association Hall of Fame in 2003 as the winningest coach in WAHS's 120-year history. His coaching career at WAHS amassed a record of 165 wins, 93 losses and 3 ties. He retired in 2001.

Born in Kane, PA, he graduated from and played football for Penn State. As a Nittany Lion, he was two-time Letterman, garnered AP Second Team All-American Honors as a star safety, and played in both the Gator Bowl and Senior Bowl.

After graduating from PSU, Montgomery taught and played semi-professional football in Richmond, VA. His coaching career began as an assistant coach in Altoona alongside Earl Strohm. He later accepted his first head coach position in Shamokin, where his team won the Eastern Conference Championship in 1975. "As a dedicated (teacher) and head football coach, he exemplified the hard work, discipline and honor he taught to his students and athletes," his family stated. "His dry sense of humor and caring for young men and women impacted generations. Coach Montgomery's family, friends, students and players would like to establish this scholarship in his memory to carry on his legacy."

Future recipients of the scholarship must be a "football player of outstanding character who plans to continue his education and who displays qualities that Coach Montgomery valued. The recipient should demonstrate integrity and hard work, both in the classroom and on the field."

To contribute to the scholarship fund, checks can be sent and made payable to the Williamsport Area School District Education Foundation at 2780 West Fourth St., Williamsport, PA 17701, with "Tim Montgomery Scholarship" in the memo field.

Gifts to the fund also can be made online at www.wasdeducationfoundation.org. ~ Submitted by Greg Hayes

Central Pennsylvania Food Bank Honors Community Members

2019 Hunger Hero Awards Winner Announced

The Central Pennsylvania Food Bank held its fourth annual Hunger Action Month Breakfast in Williamsport on September 17, welcoming friends, volunteers, partners and supporters of the Food Bank. The event took place during Hunger Action Month, a month designated by Feeding America to raise awareness on hunger issues. Central Pennsylvania Food Bank is one of 200 food bank members of Feeding America, which serves every county in the United States and provides more than three billion meals each year to neighbors in need.

“We believe that better access to better food is hand-in-hand with being better together,” stated Joe Arthur, Executive Director of Central Pennsylvania Food Bank. “We were excited to celebrate the work we have done and discuss the work we are going to do in order to reach our Bold Goal by 2025.”

The Food Bank’s Bold Goal is by 2025 their collaborative network will provide access to enough nutritious food for everyone struggling with hunger in each of the 27 central Pennsylvania counties they serve, and they will convene and nurture partnerships to make progress toward ending hunger.

During the event, the Food Bank announced the 2019 Hunger Hero Awards. These individuals and companies were selected and recognized with a plaque for their generous commitment to the work of the Food Bank and were deemed heroes in the fight against hunger:

- Advocacy: U.S. Senator Bob Casey & U.S. Rep. Glenn “GT” Thompson
- Corporate Partner: Enterprise & Genetti Hotel & Suites
- Food Donor: Clemens Food Group & Vough Acres
- Individual Philanthropist: Marsha E. Goldstein & Carl & Sue Schlicker
- Innovation: Capitol BlueCross Family Fresh Cupboard & Geisinger Fresh Food Farmacy
- Individual Volunteer: John Ewell & Joe Loehr
- Volunteer Group: Members 1st Federal Credit Union & the MisChiefs, an all-women volunteer group

Updates from Newberry's Schools

West Branch School

West Branch School was established in 1971, and 48 years later it encompasses a rich history of community based, non-graded education, which looks a lot like a "one room schoolhouse." This school year brings three new teachers and a new school director. With new teachers and a new director, the school has been getting a new look on the inside. Rooms are being painted and rearranged as well as being made more inviting for student creativity. The library has been redone and "comfy" spaces have been added with couches and beanbags.

Many of the beloved activities that the alumni hold dear are still in place with a few twists. Students will still be working intergenerationally with the Williamsport Presbyterian Home, having a fall retreat at Camp Susque, engaging in theatrical performances, and traveling to a large city for a unique cultural experience. Also returning is Dr. LeBlanc from Penn College of Technology with his engaging, hands-on science curriculum. Long time supporters of WBS Steve and Julia Hulslander are returning to bring back a vibrant pottery program and help create a strong teacher development program. WBS will also see the return of Sandy Elion, a 35-year veteran teacher as we build a strong academic program to support the individual needs of our learners. And of course, the West Branch School Fair is a must for our community.

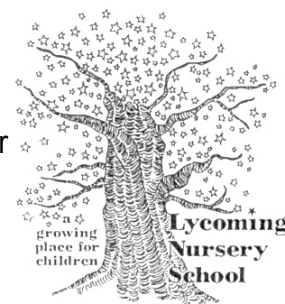

West Branch School Library Room

New ideas are on the horizon as well with planned involvement in the X-STEM Expo in Washington, DC 2020. Computer coding, soccer, cooking, and theater clubs are forming as the students engage in their passions. Also new to WBS this year is Flex Fridays! This is a time for the community at large, the parents, and alumni to return to the school to share their talents through engaging workshops. The new teachers bring a wealth of knowledge and passion to WBS as we kick off our 48th year.

Stay tuned for all the wonderful things the students are doing this year! Look for us in the community as we engage and support others and develop a love of learning in our students. ~ Submitted by Carolyn McKeon

Lycoming Nursery School

The fall season brings much excitement to the school as we have many events and outings for the students. Beginning in October our students will visit a local fire station to learn about fire safety, pick the perfect pumpkin at Carpenter's pumpkin patch, as well as participate in all of the spooky fun activities of Halloween, including a costume parade and party. In November, the school will host a Thanksgiving dinner for our families, prepared by our students and staff. December is a very exciting month for our school as we prepare for the holidays and also our biggest and most popular fundraiser, our annual "Breakfast With Santa." This year the event will be held on December 7th at Lycoming Presbyterian Church. Children can visit and take photos with Santa and enjoy a delicious pancake breakfast. During the event there will be a silent auction of baskets filled with goods from local businesses including restaurants, jewelers, independent consultants and much, much more! Advanced tickets will be available to purchase from attending students. Tickets may also be available the day of the event at the door.

Parents and siblings are encouraged to attend special event days and field trips and there are also opportunities to serve on our parent-run board. Classes are from 9:00AM to Noon, Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays, from September through May.

West End Christian Community Center (WECCC)

Really?! Fall already? Yes, really. Well, as I look back at the Summer spent here at the West End Christian Community Center, a lot has happened. We must be doing something right.

We survived the first phase of the roadwork on 4th Street. Our beautiful windows sure did vibrate, but they don't appear to have sustained any damage though. Thank you, Lord!

Windows were replaced and air conditioners installed in our Clothes Closet and Thrift Shop, making both shopping and volunteering there more comfortable during the heat of summer.

Our Kitchen Garden produced well due to loving care and good cycles of rain and sun. Our kitchen volunteers made sure we had fresh tomatoes, cucumbers and bell peppers in our garden salads served from our Soup Kitchen. Can't get any fresher.

Pastor Cal is offering 2 programs from our building to help support our community; Trikepreacher Chapel and Williamsport Area Mental Health Support Group. For more information please call the WECCC office. Our day-campers downstairs appeared to be having a good time every time I poked my head in the door. They were very well behaved and a pleasure to have in the building. They're back to school now.

Fall fashions are out in the Clothes Closet. It Won't be long and we'll be talking about frost and that "s" word.

Voting day is November 5, 2019. We are the polling place for the 6th and 7th wards of the City of Williamsport.

Please patronize our fall fundraisers. In October we are selling Jeff's Jams and Salsas. In November and December it will be Christmas Candy and Wreaths. Our Christmas candy will be molded peanut butter melt-aways and Christmas toffee sold in beautiful Christmas boxes. Every month we sell Crazy Tomato subs. Please inquire at our office or call 570-323-6297. We care for our community. We try to care through our 20 programs and services operating in Jesus name from our 901 Diamond Street campus.

Have a safe and warm Autumn. Happy Thanksgiving and Merry Christmas. ~ Todd Penman, Executive Director

2019 MUNICIPAL ELECTION • Tuesday, November 5, 2019
Neither the NCP nor insideNewberry endorses any political party or candidate

Statewide judicial offices, local judicial offices, and county, city, borough, township, and School Director offices will appear on the November ballot. In addition, one proposed amendment to the state constitution and six judicial retention questions will appear on the ballot in all 85 precincts in Lycoming County.

The statewide judicial office that will appear on the ballot is Judge of the Superior Court (2 seats).

The local judicial offices that will appear on the ballot are Judge of the Court of Common Pleas (1 seat) and Magisterial District Judge (29-1-02).

The county offices that will appear on the ballot are County Commissioner (vote for two, electing three); Controller; Coroner; District Attorney; Prothonotary; Register and Recorder; and County Treasurer.

The city offices that will appear on the ballot are Mayor; City Treasurer; City Controller; and City Council (4 seats).

In Williamsport Area School District, four School Directors are to be elected to 4-year terms; and one School Director is to be elected to a 2-year term.

In addition to the above contests, a proposed amendment to the state constitution will appear on the ballot in all 85 precincts in the county:

Proposed Amendment to the Constitution of Pennsylvania Crime Victim Rights

Shall the Pennsylvania Constitution be amended to grant certain rights to crime victims, including to be treated with fairness, respect and dignity; considering their safety in bail proceedings; timely notice and opportunity to take part in public proceedings; reasonable protection from the accused; right to refuse discovery requests made by the accused; restitution and return of property; proceedings free from delay; and to be informed of these rights, so they can enforce them?

Finally, six judicial retention questions will appear on the ballot in all 85 precincts in the county:

Question 1. Shall Anne E. Lazarus be retained for an additional term as Judge of the Superior Court of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania?

Question 2. Shall Judy Olson be retained for an additional term as Judge of the Superior Court of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania?

Question 3. Shall Kevin Brobson be retained for an additional term as Judge of the Commonwealth Court of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania?

★ FOR MAYOR ★

Whenever I had to make a decision as Mayor I always asked myself, "is this good for our city?" I'm voting for Eric Beiter because he has the leadership and integrity the honest, hardworking people of Newberry deserve.
-Phil Preziosi

Williamsport has not had a mayor with business background in the last 16 years. As manager of Beiter's, I know how to run a successful business, balance budgets, and understand the value of a hard-earned dollar.

As the only candidate with real-world business experience - I want to put my experience to work for the taxpayers of Williamsport.

Paid for by the bipartisan Committee to Elect Jon Mackey.

A Mayor from Newberry? It's about time!

Like you, I'm a Newberry resident and pay my fair share of taxes. Yet, Newberry never seems to get its fair share of the benefits. If anything, we've been stripped of resources and our infrastructure left to crumble. Most of the economic development money was spent downtown and points east, but was never used to revitalize our once-thriving Newberry community and business center. As your mayor, I will make sure Newberry gets the same consideration and attention as the rest of the city.

Increasing crime is a major concern in every neighborhood. As your Mayor, once we get our financial house in order, I will increase resources for Public Safety while working on the other critical needs of our city. I will fast-track the stalled levee project to keep Newberry and our industrial park safe from potential flooding. I am committed to the safety and security of our neighborhoods.

We can't keep raising taxes and borrowing money to cover our expenses. We must take a good hard look at our priorities, where our tax money is being spent, and how to start living within our means. We can't afford another four years of business as usual!
